WILL IMPROVE CITY HALL.

Council Empowers Street Committee to Make Acceptable and Substantial Improvements.

Daytona will soon have a City Hall that will be much more pleasantly arranged than at present. At the meeting Monday evening, a resolution was adopted authorizing the street committee to have the council chamber cleaned, repainted and renovated; to lay a new floor over the old one and to place a rail across the chamber to separate the lobby from the bar of the council. The committee was also authorized to procure a suitable table for the solons, to purchase a desk and chair for the mayor, and to place a door between the council chamber and the room now occupied by the library association. As soon as the library association is moved to its new quarters, now nearing completion, the room at present occupied by it will be converted into the mayor's office and court room.

Objects to Ordinance.

Editor Gazette-News: I see by your paper that the City Council has before it an ordinance in regard to hacks and automobiles for hire, that to one up a tree looks like a very great damage to the best interests of the city and savers too much of self interests. We have quite a number of worthy citizens, owning one rig, and their only support is what they can get out of the business. To tax them a license of $25 is excessive and hurts the interests of the city, as they will have to charge customers proportionately, or is it done to throw them out of business and the big fish eat up the little ones. The same applies to automobiles. A tax of $100 is unreasonable in the extreme. The automobile livery did more to advertise the city and suburbs than anything we have. I have seen all of F. C. Buffum's automobiles, time after time, go loaded for a trip to New Smyrna. Would these people have taken livery rigs for the trip? Probably not twenty-five per cent of them. Experience has been that the more people travel about, the more they want to, and all this helps the livery. Put self interests aside gentlemen and have a square deal for all, especially when you are doing business for the community at large.
Yours Truly,
S. H. GOVE.

GOOD PROMOTERS.

They Must Possess the Power of Inspiring Confidence.

A story is told about a young fellow who applied at a big banking establishment for a position and who upon being told that all the clerks were being sold quite confidentially, "I've never worked at the promoting business, but can't you send me to some friend of yours who needs a promoter?"

Strange indeed it is that almost every one of the successful promoters of the present day is a man who went into the exceedingly difficult work with scarcely more preparation than had gone the venturesome youth of this year.

Gifted with good address, control of the English language, fluency of speech and determination, a man who can bark in the field has in his possession the qualities that have made many promoters rich and powerful. Many of them were lawyers to begin with. Others were life insurance agents. One or two sold stock in a small way. Gradually each of these men came to see that carving out a new way for himself would give him a wider and more substantial future. And then at that moment the promoter was born.

But whether these promoters have won their spurs by organizing big concerns or corporations or by selling those already in the field there is not one of them but will tell you that most of his success was due to his power to inspire confidence. A promoter that can't make "the other fellow" believe in him and in his proposition might better be cleaning the streets. He never will succeed.

The successful promoter must be able not only to look men in the eye, but he must also be able to face the most discouraging circumstances and fight his way through them. "Faith" is a word the meaning of which he must never learn.

And the rewards? They range from millions to a few dollars that were once paid to a promoter who successfully promoted the amalgamation of two competing bootblack establishments.

MANY MINOR MATTERS MENDED

Some of an Important Nature Also Came Before the City Council Monday Evening.

The committee appointed to investigate the authorship of the letter written to J. A. Douglass while he was alderman of the city, reported that they thought they were on the track of the party who was guilty of the act, but asked for two weeks further time in which to complete their investigation.

Some time ago J. C. Rainsford asked that his taxes be reduced, but the council decided to let them stand as they are.

The Florida East Coast Railway registered a kick with the assessor on the amount of its taxes. Assessor Smith brought the matter up before the council, and they instructed him to write the railroad company that they could give no relief.

The committee appointed to investigate the alleged contempt of Alderman H. V. Stillman, of the Mayor's Court, was also granted an additional two weeks in which to complete its labors.

Alderman Howard, who is at West Somerville, Mass., on a vacation, was granted a two month's leave of absence.

Col. Shaffner Injured.

At about 3:00 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, while J. W. Harris, an insurance man and guest of Schmidt's Villa, accompanied by Col. W. M. Shaffner, was driving up Beach street the horse became frightened at an approaching automobile and shied, bringing the buggy in violent contact with Hires' Hack, which was coming down Beach street. The fore wheel of the buggy was torn away, letting the side occupied by Col. Shaffner sag considerably. Onlookers say that Mr. Harris had the horse well in hand and called to Col. Shaffner not to jump, but the latter either lost his balance or jumped in such a position that he fell backwards, striking the back of his head.

The collision occurred in front of Schmidt's Villa. Col. Shaffner jumped from the buggy just south of the Spencer Block and Mr. Harris stopped the horse before he reached First avenue. The colonel was carried to the porch of the Spencer Block in an unconscious condition and Dr. Atwood summoned. The doctor conveyed him to his home in his automobile. An examination showed that the injury was probably at the base of the brain. Col. Shaffner was delirious when not unconscious, until Wednesday morning, when he became quiet, answered questions rationally and was resting easier.
